

BOOK FOR KIDS

Donations of new books
for infants through teens
accepted now through December 15
at the library.

Started in 1991, "Books for Kids" is a statewide program sponsored by the New Jersey Library Association's Children's Services section. This program is undertaken with the hope that all children will be able to experience the joy of reading books of their very own.

Donations will be distributed throughout New Jersey to those who have limited access to books.
