Rules & Regulations

- Eligibility Requirements: A minimum of 50% of the band members must be Middle School or High School students. Priority acceptance will be given to those bands with Township resident members.
- Charter Day is a family event. Band names and song lyrics cannot contain obscenities. Bands that incite crowd violence will be disqualified.
- Equipment: The following equipment will be provided by Wavelength Audio Video: PA main Speakers, floor monitors, and microphones. Bands are responsible for providing the following backline equipment: guitar amplifiers, bass amplifiers, drum set, and any other musical instrumentation. All equipment for your band must be dropped off between 10AM & 11AM. You can access the drop off area from Rankin Avenue. There will be no vehicular access to the area after 11AM.
- Bands will have 15 minutes in between performances to get ready on stage and 20 minutes total performance time. Starting late wastes your performance time!
- All bands must be present at the conclusion of the event for the announcement of winners.
- The Battle of the Bands is a smoke free, alcohol free and drug free event.

Registration Deadline: Friday, April 10, 2015

Bands will be confirmed by April 24th and a full schedule will be released by May 1st.
