

PEC

in conjunction with Girl Scout Troop 60815 is pleased to offer Family Craft Day to our special needs community. Katie Corrigan, a Cadette Girl Scout and 8th Grade student, is working on her Silver Award Project – “Create Art from Trash” -- and would like to offer this event to our community for Free!

- Where: Community Center in Basking Ridge
- When: Saturday, March 26, 2011
- Time: 1:00pm-3:00pm
- Who should come: special needs kids and siblings welcome for ages 3-12 years old

There will be two stations set-up to make tile magnets and “litter” bugs. We will have mentors available to help with the crafts.

Please RSVP the number of children attending to Karen Zubulake at zoobies500@yahoo.com by March 20th. If you have any questions, please email or call Karen at 908-484-7402.
