Annual Field Day-May 25th (Rain Day May 26th)

Field Day is a day filled with activities, games, entertainment and FUN. Lunch may be brought from home or purchased in the school cafeteria according to the school menu. All children will receive an ice pop compliments of the Liberty Corner PTO! It's a day that your children will surely remember, and you can too!

We are asking for volunteers on field day (or the eventual rain date) as well as volunteers to fill up water balloons.

For this to be the BEST Field Day ever, we need your help. If you wish to volunteer at this fun-filled event, please e-mail Cathy Ingal at cringal@aol.com and put in the subject line "Field Day."

The following are the times you will be expected to be at the school.

Kindergarten - 1st Grade	9:15 AM - 10:30 AM
2nd and 3rd Grade	10:15 AM - 11:45 PM
4th and 5th Grades	12:45 PM - 2:15 PM

A Fundraising Event to Benefit Haiti Outreach, Inc., June 5th.

The F.S.O.T.L. Challenge will be an approximately 8 mile R.O.G.A.I.N.E. style trail run. R.O.G.A.I.N.E stands for Rugged Outdoor Group Activity Involving Navigation and Endurance. The Challenge is perhaps lighter on the ruggedness and endurance aspects of normal ROGAINES, but it definitely will be outdoor and group oriented! Proceeds of the event will benefit the well drilling, school building and other community development work of Haiti Outreach, Inc. Haiti Outreach, Inc is a 501(c)(3) non-profit, non-governmental organization (NGO) that works with communities in Haiti on clean water, education and other projects that the communities initiate, help build and sustain. These efforts are all the more critical since the devastating earthquake in 2010.

The Challenge will take place on June 5th at Lewis Morris State Park in Morristown. The entrance fee is $35.00. Event t-shirts will be available to the first 150 registrants.
