

Counselor's Corner February 2011

Dear Parents and Students,

I would like to wish everyone a Happy Valentine's Day! This month we are focusing on the theme of friendships. At this stage, children are beginning to develop friendships and sometimes need guidance on how to be a good friend. I am including a list of books that are about friendships and focus on acceptance and sharing. If you would like any further information, please feel free to email me. I hope everyone has a wonderful month and stay warm!

Sincerely,
Mrs. Anne Duque
