

Japan Relief Efforts Begin at William Annin

Starting on Monday, March 28th and continuing through Friday, April 1st students will be able to donate to Red Cross for Japan relief by purchasing a paper cherry blossom that will hang on a bulletin board near the main office. Donations of any denomination will be accepted. Please support our effort to help others by reminding your child to donate.

Sincerely,
The Annin Staff and Students